

Enjoy miniature golf and the roller slide

4 Hirata Park

The park is rich in greenery providing many things to enjoy.

2336 Sango, Hirata-cho, Kaizu City
TEL0584-66-4815

10 Tsuya River

Embankment of Tsuya River where Japanese needlefish lives, is colored with a full bloom of rape blossoms in spring and cluster-amaryllis in fall.

Tsuya, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City

The pond that is the remnant of the flood

1 The Great Pond of Katsuga

The place is popular among fishermen.

Katsuga, Hirata-cho, Kaizu City

The temple situated on a mountainside

18 Priest Gyoki's Temple

When Yoshiyuki Settsu-no-mori Matsudaira, the second son of the second generation Owari Clan leader Mitsumoto Tokugawa, was assimilated by the Takasu Clan (Kaizu city), he revived the Kannon Buddha and rebuilt the temple as a Tokugawa family temple, naming it "Garyuzan Gyoki Temple."

Ueno-Kawado, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City
TEL0584-55-0031

12 Nakae River

A line of cherry trees along Nakae River extends for 4 km.

5 Ogure River

Approximately 1,000 cherry trees stand along the banks of the Ogure River.

Introducing the history and folklore of the city

11 Museum of History and Folklore

It exhibits the history of Waju and the lifestyle of the past. A restored Noh stage and the home of Takasu Matsudaira are displayed as well.

205-1 Kayano, Kaizu-cho, Kaizu City
TEL0584-53-3232

17 Landslide Prevention Museum

Pleasurable learning center of landslide prevention. The museum exhibits the history of Hanedani, rock embankments, and landslide prevention. Children are recommended.

Okujo, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City
TEL0584-55-1110

Providing various informations on environmental education

19 Aqua World Suigo Park Center

The center offers information on environmental education through seminars and events. There are also classes available for confectionery making and paper making at the experience station.

566 Fukue, Kaizu-cho, Kaizu City
TEL0584-53-7200

2 Hirata Riverside Plaza

It's a multi-purpose park with an area of 27ha. Children find enjoyment in its rich nature. Also, our unique bicycles are available to be rent.

Nodera, Hirata-cho, Kaizu City

14 Moonlight Forest

This is a forest park where you can enjoy different flowers throughout the four seasons. It features a lawn and field athletic facilities for your enjoyment. The park is lit up during the weekends, and there is a panorama of the Nobi Plain from the Moonlight Observatory.

Hazawa, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City

The natural park where you can see the largest stone dam in Japan

16 Hanedani Dan-Dan Park

The park is known for the beautiful cherry blossoms and the gigantic stone dam constructed by Johannis de Rijke, a Dutch technician.

Hazawa, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City

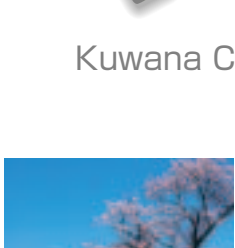

The festival that is said to have a tradition of over 200 years

8 Sweet Sake Festival of Takada

The festival began with the legend that Emperor Oujin was raised up not by milk but sweet sake.

Yahata Shrine, Takada, Hirata-cho, Kaizu City

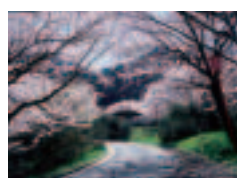

Cherry trees of different kinds

21 Yoshida Dekiyama Park

Enjoy the 1,000 Someiyoshino cherry blossoms as well as Mountain cherry blossoms. Enjoy different beautiful scene at night. Enjoy over 1,000 Somei-yoshino and mountain cherry trees day and night.

Yoshida, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City

7 Sewari Bank of the Kiso and Nagara River

The expanse of cherry trees is seen along the rivers.

Variety of sports to be enjoyed for anybody

23 Nagara-River Service Center

(Riverside recreational facility)

This facility offers water sports and others, such as tennis courts, soccer field, training gym, workshop room, etc. Extremely easy access for the disabled.

1202-2 Fukue, Kaizu-cho, Kaizu City
TEL0584-54-2075

22 Grand camphor tree at the Suwa Shrine

A gigantic 1,000-year-old camphor tree with a root circumference of 9.5m stands next to the shrine.

Matsuyama, Nanno-cho, Kaizu City

The healthy Kaizu produce is embraced by fertile land, clear water, and sunshine.

Local Specialties

Well-known catfish dishes [Freshwater fish cuisine]. The three rivers of Kiso are blessed with abundant fish. Broiled catfish and sweetfish, river shrimp tempura, and more... Enjoy the river-food culture with the most fresh ingredients.

The mellow fragrance of the local herb wins popularity [Yomogi rice cake]

Made of locally grown Yomogi herb. It is so popular that people obtain from far.

The traditional taste of Japan [Japanese pickles]

Various kinds of fresh vegetables are pickled with low salt.

Nanno-cho, Kaizu City Japanese Orange Picking

This is an expanse of the only Japanese orange growing district in Gifu. Enjoy picking these sweet-sour oranges called "Nanno Mikan."

Open from the middle of October to early December

Kaizu-cho, Kaizu City Strawberry Picking

Our proud small strawberries are offered at a low price. There is a discount for senior citizens and small children. Takeout available

Open from December to early May